

Privacy Policy

This Policy explains when and why we collect personal information, how we use it, the conditions under which we may disclose it to others and how we keep it secure.

We may change this Policy from time to time so please check this page on our website occasionally to ensure that you're happy with any changes.

Any questions regarding this Policy and our privacy practices should be sent by email to steve@cuttingandcarter.co.uk.

How do we collect information from you?

Personal information may be collected with the consent of the user by way of interactive submission or indirect submission.

What type of information is collected from you?

The personal information we collect might include your name, address, email address, date of birth, and may include photographs.

Information may be obtained from you face to face or through email or online. As the information is required to enable us to run the football club, if you opt not to provide it we may not be able to enrol you into our club.

There may be situations where the information we require is a special category of personal data under the legislation. In this case we will explain why we need it and obtain your consent to obtain the data.

How is your information used?

We will use your information for:

- i. Provision of services by Beacon Hill Rovers FC
- ii. Provide information to competitions that the club participates in
- iii. Provide our ongoing service to you

How long is information retained?

- For as long as we have reasonable needs, such as managing our relationship with you and managing our service to you
- For as long as we provide services to you
- Retention periods in line with legal and regulatory requirements or guidance.

Who has access to your information?

We will not sell or rent your information to third parties.

We will not share your information with third parties for marketing purposes.

Please be reassured that we will not release your information to third parties for them to use for their own direct marketing purposes, unless you have requested us to do so, or we are required to do so by law, for example, by a court order or for the purposes of prevention of fraud or other crime.

Contacting you

We will not contact you for marketing purposes by post, email, phone or text message unless you have given your prior consent. You can change your marketing preferences at any time by contacting us by email: steve@cuttingandcarter.co.uk or by post.

Your rights in relation to your information

The accuracy of your information is important to us. If you change your contact information, please notify us and we will update our records.

Under new EU requirements you have a number of specific rights, these are summarised below:

Access – You may ask for a copy of the information Beacon Hill Rovers hold about you and we will provide this within one month of receipt free of charge (we may charge a fee for subsequent or duplicate requests).

Rectification - You may ask us to correct any information that we hold that is inaccurate or incomplete.

Erasure – You may ask us to delete or cease processing data in certain situations. Please note that we will have regulatory obligations to retain information for certain time periods and we will retain such information as we believe is necessary to fulfil these obligations.

Restrict processing – You may ask us to cease processing information. This means that we will be able to retain it but no longer act upon it. In the event that you no longer need our services and terminate them we will automatically cease processing information.

Portability – You may have the right to have your data transferred in an appropriate electronic format.

Objection – You may have the right to object to us processing information or using it for marketing purposes.

This is a brief summary of your rights and there may be restrictions on some of them. If you wish to explore any of these rights at any time, please contact us on the addresses above and we will be pleased to assist you.

Security precautions in place to protect the loss, misuse or alteration of your information

When you give us personal information, we take steps to ensure that it is retained securely and processed in a confidential manner. Your information may be accessed by us.

Information may be transmitted normally over the Internet, and this can never be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee the security of any information that passes between us, and you should consider the risk of this. Once we receive your information, we make our best effort to ensure its security on our systems.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites run by other organisations. This privacy policy applies only to our website, so we encourage you to read the privacy statements on the other websites you visit. We cannot be responsible for the privacy policies and practices of other sites even if you access them using links from our website.

In addition, if you linked to our website from a third party site, we cannot be responsible for the privacy policies and practices of the owners and operators of that third party site and recommend that you check the policy of that third party site.

Transferring your information outside of Europe

As part of the services offered to you through this website, the information which you provide to us may be transferred to countries outside the European Union ("EU"). By way of example, this may happen if any of our servers are from time to time located in a country outside of the EU. These countries may not have similar data protection laws to the UK. By submitting your personal data, you're agreeing to this transfer, storing or processing. If we transfer your information outside of the EU in this way, we will take steps to ensure that appropriate security measures are taken with the aim of ensuring that your privacy rights continue to be protected as outlined in this Policy.

If you use our services while you are outside the EU, your information may be transferred outside the EU in order to provide you with those services.

Right to complain

If you believe that we are not holding your information correctly or are unhappy at any dealings with us regarding your information you may complain to the Information Commissioners Office. You can do this via their website <https://ico.org.uk/concerns> or by calling 0303 123 1113.

Review of this Policy

We keep this Policy under regular review. This Policy was last updated in May 2018.
